

Mr. Colby:

✓ 1. A few days ago Mr. Fisher asked for about fifteen minutes with you on various subjects. I put him on for this morning at 10:15.

AT 2. is back on your calendar for 11:00 this morning. He wants about five minutes to discuss a matter concerning his contract and his work at PFIAB. (When you see him, you might wish to regret that you were unable to see him when he came to the building last week. His appointment on Thursday morning fell through when your program briefing lasted longer than expected. I tried to squeeze him in early that afternoon, but that didn't work either.)
